

The Terrace Restaurant

at Highgate House

Open for Business...

For over forty years Highgate House has been serving stunning cuisine to its conference and event guests. Now, The Terrace Restaurant is also open to the public on a reservations-only basis.

To celebrate its opening, here is a special introductory offer. Cut out the coupon to the right and bring it with you when you dine. (Why not email one to your friends?)

Carvery Sunday Lunch...

The Terrace Restaurant will be serving a Carvery Sunday Lunch on the last Sunday of every month, commencing 25th January 2009. At just £19.50 per person for a three-course, Sunday Carvery lunch, not only will The Terrace Restaurant be one of the finest restaurants in Northamptonshire, but it will also represent unbeatable value for money.

Contemporary and modern in its design, The Terrace Restaurant features plush, comfortable seating for up to 150 guests at mealtimes and offers a delightful environment in which to enjoy dinner. Away from Northampton town centre, it also eliminates all the hassle involved with driving into town and parking. The Terrace Restaurant is fully wheelchair accessible.
